English:

(Cloze/ Comprehension)

Activity 1:

Once there was an ant and a grasshopper who lived in a field. Every day, Ant got up early and walked far to gather seeds. She balanced one seed on her head at a time, walked it back to her home, and then went again to the field to gather more. She was very small, so the walk was very long. She worked the whole day, without ever stopping to rest. As Ant worked, Grasshopper spent his days playing music, lazing in the sun. "Why do you work so hard, Ant?" he laughed. "Summer is here! Why waste the sunshine gathering seeds?"

Activity 2:

1. Why was the walk to get seeds so long for the ant? The walk was so long because the ant was very small and therefore had small legs which couldn't carry her that far speedily.
2. Would you rather be the grasshopper or the ant? Why? I would rather be the grasshopper because he didn't seem to let things bother him and he learned to appreciate the good things around him. Although, the ant seems more responsible and organised.
3. Pick out the connectives from this passage and list them. (remember they are not always in the middle of sentences.)
- who, and, and, ten, so, without, as

Narrative writing

1.

- Who are the characters in the story

The characters in the story are the 3 little pigs, their mother (mammy pig) and the wolf.

- Where is the setting of the story

The setting in this story is in the countryside. (a field, a piece of land, a forest or a woods is also right)

- What is the conflict in the story

The conflict in the story is between the 3 pigs and the wolf. The wolf wanted to get into the pig's houses to eat them.

2

The start of the story we see the pigs leaving their mammy and moving away to build their own houses.

In the middle of the story we see the 3 pigs build three of their own houses made out of different materials. Then, we see they all get a visit from the wolf who tries to get into each of their houses.

The end of the story we see the 3 pigs all in their big brother's house that's made out of brick. The wolf tries to get into this house by climbing down the chimney. The wolf climbs into a pot of boiling water in the house made from brick and the pigs are safe.
